CLOTHING—KRAUS BROS.

A Little Figuring . . .

WILL CONVINCE YOU THAT IT PAYS TO WEAR

Kraus' Ready-Tailored Clothing.

The swell custom tailor makes a few suits a season, takes one to four weeks' time, charging you for it, if they are not "right thinkers" then. WE FIT YOU IN FIVE MINUTES and charge you only half as much. If there are any alterations we do it free of charge. It's the exception when the dressiest man is not pleased with Kraus' Ready-Tailored Suits. They are made by expert tailors in large quantities, of the same cloth and same trimmings that the swell custom tailors buy in small lots. Who can do better by you? Do you think our arguments too strong? Just come and examine the Suits; you can judge better by the eyes than ears. Money back if you want it. What custom tailor will do as much?

TO DIE A-BORNIN'

Will be the Fate of the Good Government Club Unless

MORE INTEREST IS EXHIBITED

Than was Shown at the Meeting Held Last Evening—Kneecrashes on the Territory of the Civic Federation, which was Partially Organized Last Fall—Addresses Made by Ministers and Others. The Temporary Organization Made Permanent.

The meeting held at the Fourth Street M. E. church last night, for the purpose of organizing a Good Government League, was slimly attended, there being only about fifty persons present, of whom the fair sex formed no small proportion. It was the result of an preliminary meeting held last December, by representatives of young people's societies.

The committee appointed then to draft a constitution and by-laws reported last night and the officers were made permanent. Rev. R. B. Bigger, president, occupied the chair, and Secretary George Hastings was at the desk. After devotional services, Mr. Allan Steen read a paper: "Is there need of change in our city government?"

"Why Good Citizens Should Take Part in Government," was the theme of an address by Rev. Dr. Schwarm.

President Bigger outlined the policy of the movement for better municipal government. He said the movement was not similar to a law and order league, nor was it a crusade against gambling houses, saloons, or dives; but it was a movement to put men in power who would enforce the laws.

The constitution and by-laws submitted were adopted. They were so brief, and left so much ground uncovered that the meeting became very much tangled. Until the meeting it had been supposed that the organization was for young people, but last night it drifted into the territory of the Civic Federation. Women are admitted to membership. Unless more spirit is infused into the organization, judging by last night's meeting, the Good Government League will die a-bornin'.

THE RAILROADS.

An official of the Baltimore & Ohio road, in commenting on the stir that some of the strong lines are making because the Baltimore & Ohio and the Erie roads have been doing more business and the strong lines less, is quoted as saying: "Two years ago the Erie and Baltimore & Ohio were fourth-class roads. Their rolling stock and tracks were in a run-down condition, and they could not handle the traffic offered to them in a satisfactory manner. Now conditions are altogether different. The Erie and the Baltimore & Ohio have been revolutionized in one short year, and are now up to date in everything. They are handling a larger volume of business than ever before in their history, simply because they are handling it well. The Baltimore & Ohio receivers have done wonders for that system, and I venture the prediction that when the prevailing industrial depression is ended, the road will show phenomenal earnings. With hard times and two additional first-class trunk lines to contend with, it is no wonder that the Pennsylvania and the Vanderbilt systems are complaining about the loss of traffic. Not only do I claim that the Baltimore & Ohio will make a great showing with its present facilities, but I will also predict that the system will be ranked with the very best before two years. I would not be surprised to see the road cut loose from some of the objectionable traffic combinations, and win fresh laurels and unbounded approbation from the shippers."

B. & O. Officials Confer.

Representatives of the Pittsburgh & Trans-Ohio divisions of the Baltimore & Ohio road, and the freight representatives of the Baltimore & Ohio Southwestern met in Cincinnati, on Wednesday, for the purpose of conferring regarding the conduct of the freight business of the systems named, and also for the purpose of getting acquainted with each other and receiving and making suggestions.

The Baltimore & Ohio was represented by L. R. Brockenbrough, general freight agent, Pittsburgh; G. A. Cartwright, assistant general freight agent, Pittsburgh; District Freight Agents B. E. Koup, Tiffin, Ohio; C. A. Constans, Columbus, Ohio; C. T. Wright, Sandusky, Ohio; Contracting Freight Agents H. B. Rogers, Cleveland; H. M. Matthews, Pittsburgh; C. H. Wood, Akron, Ohio; C. D. Green, Wheeling, W. Va.; J. H. Hutchins, Detroit, and E. N. Kindall, Toledo.

General Freight Agent Brockenbrough said that the family gathering was a very pleasant one, indeed, and that he thought it would prove very beneficial in a business way.

MANY CONGRATULATIONS

Received By Minister Hart on His Appointment—Some of the Telegrams and Letters Received.

Since his nomination by the President on Wednesday, to be United States minister to Colombia, Mr. Charles Burdett Hart has been the recipient of telegrams and letters of congratulation from all parts of the state and from old friends and well wishers in many other states. Not a few of these letters are from Wheeling, where, also, verbal congratulations from friends of all parties have greeted him wherever he has appeared. The prompt action of the senate yesterday in confirming the nomination was very gratifying to Mr. Hart's friends here. Mr. Hart expressed his hearty appreciation and his gratitude to all who have shown such kindly interest in his preferment.

From among the many congratulatory telegrams and letters received yesterday, the following are taken:

From Senator Elkins—"You have been confirmed. Congratulations again." Senator N. E. Whittaker, who is in Charleston—"Accept my very heartiest congratulations. I am more than pleased with your success and the deserved recognition of your untiring devotion and unswerving loyalty. I am gratified that it has come."

Governor Atkinson, Charleston—"General Dana, George Bowers, Senator Whittaker, Virgil A. Lewis are all in my office and all of us send red hot congratulations."

Editor J. J. Peterson, of the Huntington Herald—"Sincere congratulations." Editor A. B. White, of the Parkersburg Journal—"Accept my hearty congratulations and very best wishes. It's deserved."

John Tucker, Newark, Ohio—"Accept congratulations on your appointment as minister to Bogota."

Congressman B. B. Dovenor, Washington—"Allow me to congratulate you on your nomination."

R. E. A. Dorr, publisher New York Mail and Express—"Accept congratulations of the Mail and Express and your old colleague."

C. H. Roberts, of Philadelphia—"Accept congratulations. May your position be a pleasant one, and your services redound to the honor of the United States a hundred fold."

D. W. Gail, Washington, D. C.—"I am always glad of the success of a West Virginian, especially a newspaper man, regardless of political affiliation."

C. S. Howell, superintendent of the Western Pennsylvania Hospital, Pittsburgh—"I hasten to congratulate you. The appointment is as deserved as it is distinguished. My own pleasure is only less than your own. It is one of the few instances in which merit is the principal element. It is the logical issue of the work of which you of all others, pioneered, and the reward is really small in view of the scope of the scheme and the incidents of work, and the intelligence and vigor that characterized it."

C. A. Schaefer, surveyor of customs, Wheeling—"As one of your fellow citizens, please accept: earnest congratulations on your well merited success in being named as a representative abroad of our great American republic."

Rev. Dr. D. A. Cunningham, First Presbyterian church of Wheeling—"You have my sincere congratulations upon your appointment as minister by the President and United States, to Colombia. No more deserving and fitting appointment has been made by the present administration."

Robert C. Datzell, Cashier City Bank—"It gives me pleasure to read that your name has been sent to the senate by President McKinley. I have no doubt that you will fill the post with credit to yourself and with honor to your country and make your fellow citizens proud of you."

J. H. Devore—"I beg to congratulate you, the state of West Virginia and the United States on the President's selection of a minister to Colombia."

Many other expressions of a similar nature have been received. Mr. Hart will probably leave for his post in South America about the middle of June.

MR. J. H. MCKINLEY, fresh from his triumphs, achieved with Madame Calve, will sing the third part in St. Paul at the Casino, Friday, May 28.
